Working experience and occupation

During his 34 years of service in MIDA, Datuk Rajendran spent a significant amount of time promoting foreign and domestic investments in the manufacturing and services sector. Starting out in MIDAs Regional Affairs and subsequently the Tariff Division, Datuk Rajendran went on to serve in three different MIDA offices overseas namely MIDA Cologne, MIDA Milan and MIDA Tokyo. This has indirectly equipped Datuk Rajendran with the skills and expertise to engage effectively with foreign investors, particularly those from Europe and Japan to choose Malaysia as their investment destination.

Upon returning back to MIDA HQ in 2010, Datuk Rajendran went on to assume the position of Director in the Foreign Investment Promotion, Asia/ Oceania Zone Division. This enabled MIDA to leverage on his familiarity with international engagements with both foreign investors and related-government institutions. His distinguished contributions in these capacities have led to his appointment as the Deputy Chief Executive Officer of MIDA on 1 July 2014.

Due to MIDAs core function as an investment promotion agency, Datuk Rajendran has regular engagements, not only with the business community but the media as well. During these exchanges, Datuk Rajendrangs passion in attracting investments to Malaysia shines through as he enthusiastically shares Malaysias comparative and competitive advantages as well as potential business opportunities.

Datuk Rajendran positions MIDA for future competitiveness by supporting the CEOs strategy to develop new business models that will enhance MIDAs core business activities and visibility, strengthening strategic planning and policy advocacy with an emphasis on the ecosystem approach. A specialist in problem solving and having a distinct flair for negotiations, Datuk Rajendrangs role is crucial in times of managing conflict and reaching for win-win outcomes.
